My name is Claudinea,

I have been working in the IT field all my professional life. I love software development and would like to learn more about it.

My goal in the future is to become an IT teacher (which I did before for about 10 years) and I loved it.

I am friendly and reliable.

I like movies, music and the arts.